

PharmaNet: We are an international contract research organization (CRO), providing a complete range of clinical development and regulatory services from drug development through post marketing phase to the pharmaceutical, biotechnology and medical device industries. Due to company growth, we have a newly created regional regulatory affairs position.

Senior Director, Regulatory Operations – Latin America

Office Location: São Paulo, Brazil Office

- Provide regulatory consulting services to clients
- Consult with Business Development regarding Regulatory Affairs services with prospective clients
- Provide guidance on regulatory issues to project teams
- Maintain current knowledge of regulations and regulatory guidelines for Brazil and the Latin America region
- May provide direction to the operations of the Regulatory Operations Department
- Assure dissemination to affected parties of relevant changes in regulations and guidelines and directs implementation of training, if necessary
- Supervise and mentor Regulatory Operations staff located throughout the region

Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree in life sciences; graduate degree preferred
- Eight to ten years of relevant pharmaceutical industry experience (which may include CRO or Health Authority experience) with at least three years of regulatory affairs experience at a sufficiently responsible level
- Effective management skills
- Good English and Spanish communication skills
- Excellent understanding of drug development regulations, pertaining to Latin America.
- Ability and willingness to travel (~20%)

This position will report to the Vice President, Regulatory Operations in Switzerland.

Please apply online (in English) at

https://www.ultirecruit.com/pha1001/JobBoard/JobDetails.aspx?_ID=*EA908D2FBC24A193

For more information, please contact Pauline Cornelius, Recruiter, pcornelius@pharmanet.com. Visit us at www.pharmanet.com.